The Cupertino Library Needs You as a Friend.

Join Today and Support This Vital Community Resource.

A great library is more than just books and a building. As a center for research, culture, and learning, it is one of the greatest assets of any community. We in Cupertino are particularly fortunate. Our library is the busiest, most active library in a system recognized as one of the nation's best – the Santa Clara County Library System.

Although our library is tax supported, the demand for services is high and tax dollars are limited. Cupertino provides the building and funds Sunday hours of operation. The County Library system provides the staff and the library materials at a basic level.

By joining the Friends, you will be funding services and materials not covered by the library budget. And if you choose to volunteer time as well, your effort will help the library maintain its important role in our community. These are some of the many Friends sponsored activities:

- Raising funds by holding used book sales three times a year and selling in-demand books on the Internet year around
- Running an ongoing book sale in the library lobby
- Sponsoring summer reading programs for children and teens
- Purchasing gift books for the library collection
- Providing the Best Sellers collection – the latest, most in-demand items
- Underwriting programs of general interest to the community
- Sponsoring special events for children and young adults
- Purchasing library furniture and furnishings, self-checkout machines and Go Go Biblio Bookmobile
